Vivendi: closing of the sale of its 20% interest in Numericable-SFR

Vivendi announced today the closing of the sale of its 20% interest in Numericable-SFR.

In line with the agreements outlined in its February 27, 2015 press release, the Group received today from Numericable-SFR a first cash payment of 1.8 billion euros, net of a 116 million euros price adjustment related to the SFR level of debt at end November 2014.

A second payment, by Altice France, of 1.9 billion euros bearing interest at 3.80% per year will be received no later than April 7, 2016. This second payment has a first demand bank guarantee issued by JP Morgan and BNP Paribas.
